

OPPOSE ROYAL MAIL PRIVATISATION

IT'S YOUR ROYAL MAIL AND IT'S NOT FOR SALE!

As a public service, Royal Mail is not the property of the politicians – it's the property of the people.

FOR PUBLIC SERVICE, NOT PRIVATE PROFIT!

It provides a unique, one-price-goes-anywhere daily delivery service that no private company would ever provide.

KEEP THE POST PUBLIC!

Royal Mail belongs to the people of the UK

Say No to any sell off.

Royal Mail provides a vital public service to our communities, rural and urban alike, but the Government has announced proposals to privatise and break it up.

The Communication Workers Union (CWU), which represents the overwhelming majority of Royal Mail employees, is opposed to this plan, because it will put the UK's universal, one-price-goes-anywhere daily delivery service at risk and lead to yet further closures of post offices.

Privatisation would mean the ditching of the public service principle that has been the cornerstone of Royal Mail throughout its long history.

No private company will consider it profitable to provide a daily, universal, one-price-goes-anywhere service to every isolated rural community or small business the length and breadth of the United Kingdom?

If you share our fears for the future, the CWU is asking you to write to your Member of Parliament and urge her or him to oppose the Government's sell-off plans.
