Dear Colleagues,

Re: Royal Mail Group – 2020 Free Flu Voucher Offer

Initial discussions have taken place on this subject and Royal Mail Group has agreed that there will be a 2020 'Free Flu Voucher Offer' this year to all employees.

This year, redeemable Lloyds Pharmacy Flu Vouchers together with a covering letter sent directly to all employees' homes will be issued, along with guidance which will be backed up by re-printable vouchers available in the workplace if needed.

Agency staff will again be included this year.

The Flu Vouchers will be redeemable from 1st October 2020 to 31st December 2020 and a Lloyds Pharmacy appointment booking portal will be available (details to be confirmed).

There will be a multi-media communication and promotion campaign launched promoting the 'Free Flu Voucher' scheme through Royal Mail and the Trade Unions raising awareness of the scheme and encouraging take-up.

The communications campaign is planned to begin in early September with the Flu Vouchers arriving around the 1st October.

Communications will be aligned to the Government Flu Jab scheme for this year and include information for additional 'at risk' members of the population and age groups who will receive the vaccination free via the NHS.

So a further improvement has been made in the scheme this year and hopefully this will encourage a greater take-up especially following the Coronavirus pandemic.

Further details will be issued in due course.

Yours sincerely

Dave Joyce
