What can the CWU do for women in your workplace?

- Provide one-to-one advice on issues in the workplace
- Share up to date knowledge of employment law
- Protect from discrimination
- Advice on flexible working
- Advice on maternity rights
- Advice on performance management
- Supply courses to enhance knowledge and skills (in and out of the workplace)

To find out more about women’s events and roles within the CWU contact your local union branch.

Download your copy of the CWU’s Building Tomorrow Together handbook on organising women at: www.cwu.org/building-tomorrow-together.html