Subject: Shared vans - Tier 4

Dear Dave,

Thank you for your time just now. Always good to talk.
Just to conform, for all the reasons I have outlined in my original communications, we have stepped back from shared vans with no exceptions.
As you know are seeing an increase in infection rates across large parts of the UK and remain committed to keeping our people and communities safe and well.
We are anticipating a further communication from the Government today on tiers etc. More as I have it.

Thanks.

Regards,

Dr Shaun Davis
